STATUTE

OF THE MEMBER OF THE INTERNATIONAL ADVISORY BOARD
Earth Science Institute, Slovak Academy of Sciences

The Earth Science Institute of the Slovak Academy of Sciences in an effort to organize continuous international assessment of the scientific quality at the Institute constitutes

International Advisory Board

Article 1: Recital

A member of the International Advisory Board is expected to be an outstanding senior researcher with strong international reputation. The board member is appointed by the Scientific Board of the Earth Science Institute of the Slovak Academy of Sciences. The member of the International Advisory Board provides recommendations and advice on the research orientation, employment structure, career management, and the organizational structure of the Institute. The recommendations are based on the direct assessment and on the analysis of the institute's annual report.

The member will be continuously informed by the Scientific Board or by the Institute headquarter on all new and important research developments, plans, and large project proposals.

Article 2: Activity

1. The membership in the International Advisory Board lasts for 5 years.
2. Advice and suggestions on the research orientation, organizational and personnel structure of the Earth Science Institute are expected from members of the International Advisory Board.
3. The members of International advisory board are encouraged to give research talks and courses at the Institute.

Article 3: Final statement

The certificate of the membership in the International Advisory Board is presented by the director of the Earth Science Institute and by the chair of the Scientific Board. The membership is not connected with a financial reward. However, expenses associated with the stay at the Institute during visit or Board meetings are reimbursed.

Statute of the membership of the International Advisory Board at Scientific Board of the Earth Science Institute of the Slovak Academy of Sciences was approved by the institute's Scientific Board on date 12/12/2017.
